The Jungle Book

By Rudyard Kipling

The bushes rustled a little in the thicket and Father Wolf dropped with his haunches under him ready for his leap Then if you had been watching you would have seen the most wonderful thing in the world The wolf checked in mid-spring He made his bound before he saw what it was he was jumping at and then he tried to stop himself The result was that he shot up straight into the air for four or five feet landing almost where he left ground

Man he snapped A mans cub Look

Directly in front of him holding on by a low branch stood a naked brown baby who could just walk as soft and as dimpled a little atom as ever came to a wolfs cave at night He looked up into Father Wolfs face and laughed

Is that a mans cub said Mother Wolf I have never seen one Bring it here

A wolf accustomed to moving his own cubs can if necessary mouth an egg without breaking it and though Father Wolfs jaws closed right on the childs back not a tooth even scratched the skin as he laid it down among the cubs

How little How naked and how bold said Mother Wolf softly The baby was pushing his way between the cubs to get close to the warm hide Ah He is taking his meal with the others And so this is a mans cub Now was there ever a wolf that could boast of a mans cub among her children
