Quotable Movie Quotes

The exact words of a speaker go inside quotation marks like this: Mary exclaimed, "That is amazing!" If you look closely at the quotation marks they fit around the letters on each end of the quotation. Quotation marks also go after any punctuation marks such as periods, exclamation marks, question marks, or commas.

Example: "Did you hear that a new movie is at the theater?" Angelica asked.

Sometimes authors accidentally leave out quotation marks. Edit the sentences below, adding quotation marks where they should appear.

1. When should we go to the movie? Olivia asked.
2. Angelica replied, Let's go to the movie theater tomorrow at 3:00 p.m.
3. That sounds like a plan! Olivia exclaimed.
4. The next day, Angelica knocked on Olivia's door. Are you ready? she asked.
5. Just one minute! Olivia said.
6. When they got to the movies, the clerk asked, How many tickets would you like to buy?
7. Angelica replied, We need two tickets for the new movie.
8. That will be fifteen dollars, the clerk responded.
9. Angelica and Olivia watched the movie and loved it. What a fantastic movie! they exclaimed.
10. Would you like to see the new movie? they asked all of their friends. The movie was so good that they just couldn't wait to see it again!
