

Rebus Stories

A rebus story is told using pictures and drawings in place of words. The drawings can symbolize a sound, word or character. Use the drawings below to fill in the blanks for a passage from Alice's Adventures in Wonderland by Lewis Carroll.

Directions

Use a pair of  to cut out these pictures and then them onto the correct spots in the story on page 2.

ALICE'S ADVENTURES IN WONDERLAND

BY LEWIS CARROLL

Once upon a time there was a little [] named Alice. She had [] hair and wore a lovely []. One day, her mother was reading her a [], but Alice could not pay attention.
So she went [] to play. Suddenly, she noticed a fluffy white [] wearing a []! She was surprised when he pulled out a [] to check the time. "I'm late!" cried the [] as he ran off. Full of curiosity, Alice followed him through a [], and she began to fall...