

Australia, the Land Down Under

Regent Bowerbird

The male Regent Bowerbird is best known for his color: jet black with vivid orange-yellow wings, neck and head. The eye is also bright yellow. The female is a light brown. All male bowerbirds build bowers, which can be simple ground clearings or elaborate structures, to attract female mates.