

Runners

Running is a good and fun form of exercise. You can run on your own, or with your friends. Sometimes it's exciting to participate in races, both long and short. A very short race is called a sprint. A marathon is a type of long distance race. (Over 20 miles long!)

