

'Saw' or 'Seen'

When you are talking about things that already happened, be sure to use the correct word!

The word saw is the past tense of the verb see.

Example: I saw a parade in my neighborhood.

The word seen is usually used with a helper verb (have, has, had, was).

Example: I have seen a parade in my neighborhood.

Directions: Use the rules above to help you decide if saw or seen best completes the sentence. Write your answer on the line.

1. Joe thought he _____ a rabbit yesterday.
2. After fifteen minutes, Jody realizes she has _____ the movie before.
3. I didn't see the milk on the counter, but I _____ the cookies.
4. Michelle said she had _____ the robber.
5. I have never _____ anything like this before.
6. Brienne just _____ a large bird.
7. The class _____ a video about the solar system.
8. Have you _____ the new book in the library?
9. I _____ that shooting star.
10. Reema and Brendan have _____ the band play.

Directions: Write a sentence for each word (saw and seen).

1. Saw _____

2. Seen _____

