

Search for Nonfiction Text Features

Nonfiction text features are the parts of a book that provide us with additional information and help us better comprehend a piece of text.

Directions: Get ready to hunt for nonfiction text features! Record both the name of the book and the page number for each of the text features below.

| Text Feature | Example | Purpose | Citation |
|--------------|---|---|----------------------------------|
| Photograph |  | helps the reader see what something looks like (taken with a camera) | Page # _____ Book Title _____ |
| Caption |  Iroquois longhouse | text near a picture or illustration that provides information about that image | Page # _____ Book Title _____ |
| Map |  | shows the reader the specific location of a person, place, thing, or event | Page # _____ Book Title _____ |
| Index | Unit 1..... 3 Grammar..... 3 Verbs..... 4 Spelling 6 | a list of important topics and page numbers that direct the reader to specific information | Page # _____ Book Title _____ |
| Glossary | artificial : made by people barometer : an instrument that measures air pressure | an alphabetical list of key terms and their definitions that help readers comprehend the text | Page # _____ Book Title _____ |
| Bold Print | The tadpole breathes using gills. | dark or colorful words that signal to the reader to pay attention to these important words | Page # _____ Book Title _____ |
| Labels |  | Words that tell the reader about the specific parts of a picture or diagram | Page # _____ Book Title _____ |