

Sharp-shinned Hawk

Fun Facts

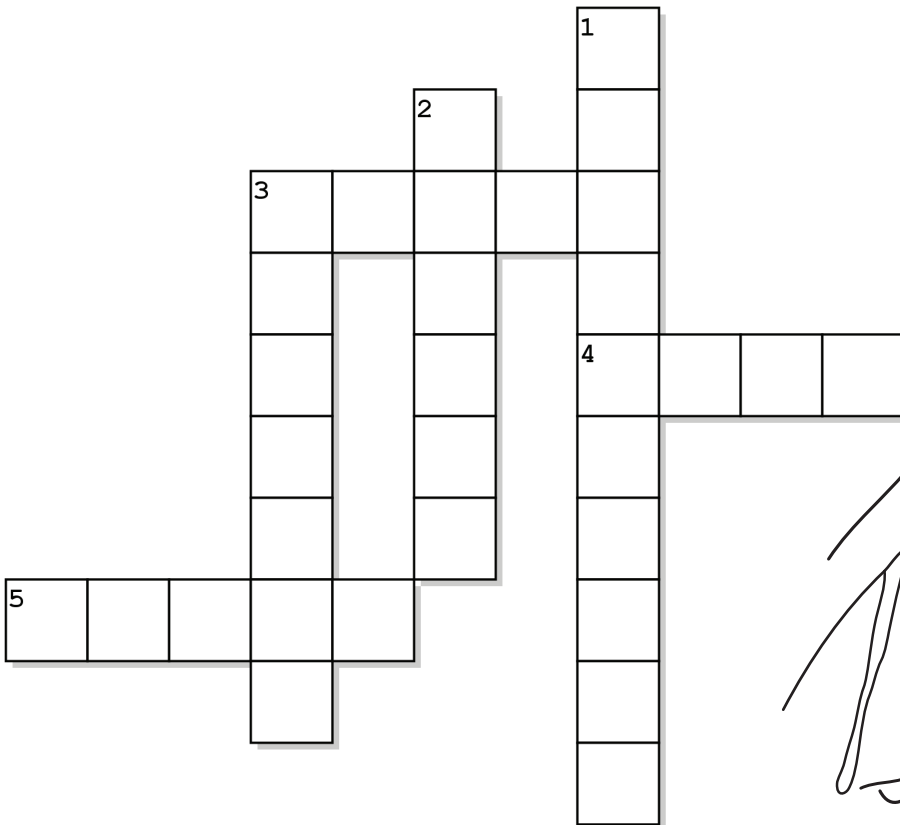

- ★ The sharp-shinned hawk is a territorial bird that defends its nest even from people.
- ★ The sharp-shinned hawk is one of the smallest of North American hawks.
- ★ The head and neck of the sharp-shinned hawk seem small for its long slender body.
- ★ The call of the sharp shinned hawk is very melancholy, or very sad, sounding.
- ★ The sharp-shinned hawk is common in the United States, Mexico and Canada.
- ★ The sharp-shinned hawk nests in trees high above the ground.

Across:

3. This hawk's head and neck seem _____.
4. What does the sharp-shinned hawk defend from people?
5. Where does the sharp-shinned hawk like to nest?

Down:

1. How does the sharp-shinned hawk's call sound?
2. The sharp-shinned hawk is common in the United States, Mexico and this country.
3. This hawk's body is long and _____.

Across: 3. Small, 4. Nest, 5. Trees
Down: 1. Melancholy, 2. Canada, 3. Slender