

Spelling Practice:

Parvati's Pastry Palace

Circle the correct word to complete each sentence.

- 1 A baker from a young age, Parvati set her (sites/sights) on owning her own bakery one day.
- 2 With her (families/family's) support and her friends' encouragement, she launched her business, Parvati's Pastry Palace.
- 3 Now, customers from all over the country travel great distances to admire and enjoy Parvati's award-winning (deserts/desserts).
- 4 The warm color palette, the friendly staff, and the smell of freshly baked pastries all have a very inviting (affect/effect) on visitors to the Pastry Palace.
- 5 Parvati's baked goods not only look visually stunning, but they also boast flavors that perfectly (compliment/complement) each other.
- 6 With a variety of items to choose from, it's easy to (lose/loose) track of time in Parvati's Pastry Palace.
- 7 With (there/their) elaborate designs and unique flavors, Parvati's pastries couldn't be any further from ordinary.
- 8 Not taking oneself too seriously and having fun with the process are Parvati's two (principles/principals) for success.
- 9 Whenever Parvati offers a group baking lesson, the (class's/classes) favorite part is tasting the treats they've created.
- 10 In the future, Parvati plans to (acquire/aquire) a larger space so that she can include a retail section featuring products made by other local businesses.
- 11 She hopes to showcase branded apparel, beeswax candles, and handmade (stationary/stationery).
- 12 (Whether/Weather) you're looking for a custom-designed cake or an assorted cookie tray for your next big party, Parvati's Pastry Palace has what you need.

