

Spice Up your Sentences with Adverb Phrases

An adverb phrase is a group of words starting with an adverb that works together to provide an extra description about the verb. Remember, adverbs tell when, frequency, how, location, and to what extent.

Directions: In each sentence below, circle the verb and underline the adverb phrase.

1. After we left, we ate, and promptly napped.
2. She brought her book under the bridge and read for three hours.
3. The dog darted quickly through the woods.
4. James chased the ball afterwards and sprinted toward the goal.

Now, using the image above as inspiration, write three sentences that have adverb phrases. Circle the verb and underline the adverb phrase.
