

Name: _____

Date: _____

Spotting Something Strange

Look closely at each sentence. Do you see anything strange? Some sentences contain an incorrect irregular verb. If all of the verbs are correct, write the word correct on the corresponding line. If an incorrect verb is used, circle the word and write the correct verb on the line underneath each pair of sentences.

Example: Sentence 1: James leaves on his trip to Japan.
Sentence 2: James leaved on his trip to Japan.
left

1. Sentence 1: The students begin the project early since it will take a long time.

Sentence 2: The students began the project early since it will take a long time.

2. Sentence 1: Melissa jogs to the park so that she can get exercise.

Sentence 2: Melissa jogged to the park so that she could get exercise.

3. Sentence 1: Matthew swims many laps in the pool to prepare for his swim meet.

Sentence 2: Matthew swam many laps in the pool to prepare for his swim meet.

4. Sentence 1: Tom drives to the store to get some ketchup for their meal.

Sentence 2: Tom drove to the store to get some ketchup for their meal.

5. Sentence 1: Sarah leaves early so that she can get home before it is dark.

Sentence 2: Sarah left early so that she could get home before it was dark.
