

The Story of Passover

Ramses II was a pharaoh, or ruler, of Egypt. He had enslaved many Jews to build pyramids. Moses was one of these slaves and demanded Ramses to free them but he said, "No, no, no, I will not let them go!" God was angered by this, so He sent 10 plagues to Egypt, but Jews were spared, or "passed over," and weren't affected. Finally, after the 10th plague Ramses freed the Jews.

Passover celebrates that freedom.

