

Name: _____

Date: _____

Substitute with Synonyms

A synonym is a word that means the same as another word. Synonyms help us avoid repeating the same word over and over again in our writing.

Example: Pretty = Beautiful

Directions: Replace the underlined word with its synonym from the Word Bank.

Word Bank

honest joyful intelligent thoughtful unfriendly wealthy determined hilarious

strong controlling

1. The boy was mean when he wouldn't let others join the game. _____
2. I felt so happy when my brother helped me study. _____
3. The television show made me laugh because it was funny. _____
4. It was so kind of the girl to help the injured bird. _____
5. My trustworthy friend always tells the truth. _____
6. No one wanted to play with the bossy kid in the neighborhood. _____
7. The rich people built a huge mansion to live in. _____
8. The smart boy studied for many days before the test. _____
9. A hardworking athlete practiced until she made the team. _____
10. The swimmer was so tough, and he broke the school's record. _____