

The Four Types of Sentences

There are four types of sentences: declarative, imperative, exclamatory, and interrogative.

- Declarative sentences: The most common type of sentence. Also known as a telling sentence or a statement. Usually end with a period (.).
Examples: The sky is blue. My cat Tigger is sweet and cuddly.
- Imperative sentences: A command or a request. Used to tell someone to do something. Could end with a period (.) or an exclamation mark (!).
Examples: Clean your room! Please sit down.
- Exclamatory sentences: Used to say something with lots of emotion, such as excitement, surprise, pain, or anger. Usually end with an exclamation mark (!).
Examples: I love chocolate! I can't believe he did that!
- Interrogative sentences: Used to ask a question or get information. Always end with a question mark (?).
Examples: Where are my keys? What is your address?

Part 1: Read each sentence and write the type of sentence it is ("D" for declarative, "Im" for imperative, "E" for exclamatory, and "In" for interrogative).

Part 2: Add punctuation to make these sentences correct. Then, name the type of sentence using the letters in the previous part.
