

Through the Eyes of a Teacher

Name: _____

Instructions: Read each paragraph that shows one teacher's point of view. After reading each paragraph, respond with your own point of view. In the last column, compare and contrast your point of view with the teacher's point of view.

A Teacher's Point of View

My Point of View

Compare and Contrast

It is important that my students love to participate in the lessons that I teach. I want to plan lessons that are exciting for them. They should be involved!

What is your point of view on class lessons? Share your reasons.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Is your point of view similar or different? Explain how your point of view is similar or different.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

My students should have adequate recess time, but I need to limit it to twenty minutes per day. There are a lot of lessons to teach during the day, but our time is limited.

What is your point of view on recess? Share your reasons.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Is your point of view similar or different? Explain how your point of view is similar or different.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

My reason for coming to school every day is to help students learn. I spend a lot of time planning lessons and grading their work. If a student isn't doing well, I look for resources that I can use to help that student.

What is your point of view on coming to school? Share your reasons.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Is your point of view similar or different? Explain how your point of view is similar or different.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---