

Every year a tree grows a new ring.
Which one of these trees lived the longest?

The thickness of a tree ring can tell us a lot about the environment and health of a tree during a specific time period.

Match the following conditions with the correct ring.

Thick rings

.....

Thin rings

Good weather

Disease

Bad weather

Healthy

Good environment

Bonus Trivia:

A scientist who studies tree rings is called a dendrochronologist.