

Community Match

Communities are groups of people who have something in common. They can be made up of many different types of people, and the people in them can share many types of interests. Communities can be made up of people who live near each other, people who attend the same church, or the people who like the same movies and music!

Match the people who belong to the same communities!
Some people may match more than one.

