

President True or False

State if the presidential fact is True or False. If false, correct it.

1. The term for a president is 4 years. _____

2. The president lives in the White House, which is located in California. _____

3. To be president you must be at least 35 years old. _____

4. Anyone from any country can be president of the United States. _____

5. A president can either sign a bill into law or reject them. _____

