James
Buchanan

1. He graduated from a teacher's college. He was vice president under Kennedy. In 1965 he signed a major Civil Rights bill and an $11.5 billion tax-reduction bill. He ordered the bombing of North Vietnam. He established Medicare and the Department of Housing. He proclaimed a "War on Poverty."

Abraham
Lincoln

2. Our 15th president had been Secretary of State under Polk. He was the only president never to marry. In 1857 he recommended a pro-slavery Kansas constitution. By the time he was 30, he had amassed a fortune of $300,000. One of his eyes was nearsighted and the other farsighted. As a result he always cocked his head to the left.

Warren
Harding

3. When he was 18, our 41st president was the youngest pilot in the Navy. He was the first vice president to serve as acting president when Reagan underwent surgery. In 1989 he ordered troops to remove Panama's General Noriega. After Hussein invaded Kuwait, he started Operation Desert Shield.

Lyndon
Johnson

4. In 1921 our 29th president signed a joint congressional resolution of peace with Germany, Austria and Hungary. He was the first newspaper publisher to be president. Both of his parents were doctors. While president, he played golf often, poker twice a week, and followed baseball and boxing.

George H.
Bush

5. Our 16th president had no formal education. He believed that slavery was wrong, and in 1863, he issued the Emancipation Proclamation. Shot while in a theater, he was the first president to be assassinated. A poll of historians named him the nation's greatest president.
