

Important Icons in the United States of America

Below are some important icons in the U.S.A. Read the facts below and see why these icons are important to the nation.

Mount Rushmore

Located in the Black Hills of South Dakota, Mount Rushmore shows the faces of four United States presidents. Each president's nose is about 20 feet tall!

Betsy Ross

Betsy Ross was known for sewing the very first American flag. She was born on January 1st, 1752. Next time you are in Philadelphia, don't forget to visit her house, which is now a museum.

