

Name: _____

Date: _____

What Is the Subject?

The subject is who or what the sentence is about. Remember, the subject is always a noun or pronoun.

Example: A very cute monkey ate bananas at the zoo.

My homework is finished!

Directions: Underline the subject in each of the sentences below.

1. José is going to a birthday party at the park.
2. After dinner, Yuri and I watched a movie.
3. The table has been painted blue.
4. Even when it is cold, the pool is a great place to relax.
5. My cat is sleeping on the cozy, red blanket.
6. We love eating pizza!
7. Those strange creatures at the aquarium didn't look like fish.
8. The beautiful flowers at the park were planted last fall.
9. Since it is so quiet, the library is the best place to read.
10. Henry, the English bulldog, is friendly and playful.

Directions: Read the short story and underline the subject of each sentence.

Rosie wanted a kitten more than anything in the world. For months, she had dreamed of the day that she and her parents would go to the pound and adopt her brand new pet. But Rosie's mother insisted they wait until Rosie's birthday, which was still two months away. Rosie thought of kittens all day. She hoped hers would have blue eyes, fluffy fur, and a happy purr that Rosie would feel through her shirt when the kitten curled up on her chest.

Who or what is this story mostly about? _____