

Name:

Date:

WHAT MAKES A FANTASY?

Fantasy is a type of fiction that is completely made-up and has elements that do not exist in the real world.

SOME ELEMENTS OF FANTASY:

- Characters that use magic
- Major events that could never happen
- Make-believe or mythical creatures
- Talking animals or objects
- Magical setting
- Other unrealistic characteristics

DIRECTIONS: Complete the graphic organizer with details from your fantasy story.

Element of Fantasy	Details from My Story
MAGIC
UNREALISTIC CHARACTERS
UNREALISTIC SETTING
UNREALISTIC EVENTS

How could you change the story to make it fit into the realistic fiction genre?
