

What's It Made Of?

Elements are the bulding blocks of everything we see and use. Below are the elements that make Earth's crust.

Use the clues to find out where each element belongs on the pie chart. Write the correct answer in the correct slice.

Word List:

oxygen

silicon

aluminum

iron, sodium, calcium, potassium and others

Clues:

Aluminum is the smallest percentage.

There is more oxygen than silicon.

There is more silicon than iron, sodium, calcium, potassium and others.