

Not all stories are written by the book! In fact, many great writers like to experiment with style and form. Practice thinking outside the box for this next prompt. Write a short story or poem about your favorite winter activity, but using NO NOUNS. Remember, a noun is a person, place, thing or idea. You may find it tricky at first, but just remember that you don't have to write in complete sentences. Have fun and be creative!

A large writing area with horizontal dashed lines for text entry.