

Word Patterns in Sentences Level 1

Words with prefixes and suffixes follow patterns. Noticing and understanding these patterns can help you figure out their meanings.

Example: A pointless story doesn't have a point.
An endless story doesn't have an end.

Directions: Complete each sentence to match the model.

1. A joyful person is full of joy.
A beautiful person is full of _____.
2. When you write a sentence again, you rewrite.
When you _____ a sentence again, you reread.
3. A baker is a person who bakes.
An explorer is a person who _____.
4. You can depend on a friend who is dependable.
You can enjoy a friend who is _____.
5. A person who creates art is an artist.
A person who writes a _____ is a novelist.
6. If you do not like a game, you dislike it.
If you do not continue a game, you _____ it.
7. An unexpected gift is not expected.
An unwrapped gift is not _____.
8. Food that is baked before is prebaked.
Food that is ordered before is _____.