

Word Patterns in Sentences Level 2

Words with prefixes and suffixes follow patterns. Noticing and understanding these patterns can help you figure out their meanings.

Example: During an election, voters elect leaders.

During an inspection, mechanics inspect vehicles.

Directions: Complete each sentence to match the model.

1. A bike with three wheels is a tricycle.
A shape with three angles is a _____.
2. On a foggy day, there is a lot of fog.
In soapy water, there is a lot of _____.
3. Someone who itches the baseball is a itcher.
Someone who takes photographs is a _____.
4. A statement that is spoken in a clear way is spoken clearly.
A statement that is spoken in a sudden way is spoken _____.
5. Animals that live underwater live beneath the water.
Animals that live underground live beneath the _____.
6. A person who is overconfident has extra confidence.
A game that is in overtime has extra _____.
7. A development is something that has been developed.
A measurement is something that has been _____.
8. Darkness describes the state of being dark.
Happiness describes the state of being _____.