

Word Patterns in Sentences Level 3

Words with prefixes and suffixes follow patterns. Noticing and understanding these patterns can help you figure out their meanings.

Example: You can move an object that is movable.
You can fix an object that is fixable.

Directions: Complete each sentence to match the model.

1. A midweek meeting occurs in the middle of the week.
A midmorning meeting occurs in the middle of the _____.
2. When you add length to your watch band, you lengthen it.
When you add strength to your muscle, you _____ it.
3. Citizenship is the state of being a citizen.
Friendship is the state of being a _____.
4. When you finalize your plans, you make the plans final.
When you _____ a song, you make the song popular.
5. Pants that are wrinkly have a lot of wrinkles.
Popcorn that is _____ has a lot of butter.
6. Mythology is the study of myths.
Oceanology is the study of _____.
7. When a firework explodes, it creates an explosion.
When a leader decides, they make a _____.
8. An elegant person is one who shows elegance.
A brilliant person is one who shows _____.