

Rhyme Scheme: Write Your Own Limerick

To get started let's use Edward Lear's limerick format as an example. Fill in the blanks below. Try to make it rhyme!

There was a (an)		from/in
adjecti	ve noun (person	or animal)	noun (place)
Whose	was/were
noun (feature like a nose	e or foot)	-ly adverb	adjective
He/She/It
Add	a sentence here about somet	hing that happened
And
	Add more about what hap	pened next
That		from/in
same adjective as first line	same noun as first line		same place as first line Great Work! Now draw a picture for your limerick.				