Write the Ending: Kaniesha's Trip

Read the beginning of the story and write your own ending on the lines below.

When the pilot announced that the plane would soon be landing, Kaniesha looked out the window to watch the houses below look larger and larger. She closed her eyes as the plane bumped on the runway and stopped at the gate. She was so excited walking off the plane, she was almost skipping! She was following her parents and little brother when she spied planes taking off nearby. She stopped to look at them, and when she looked for her family, they were gone!
