

Write Your Own Declaration!

The Declaration of Independence was written as a statement to officially declare the United States' freedom from the British Empire. If you could write your own official declaration, what would you write about? It could be anything - from your love of mint chip ice cream to your strong support of our troops. Be creative and be passionate about your topic.

A large, light-brown scroll with a dark brown border and four wooden rollers (two on the left, two on the right). The scroll is unrolled and contains 30 horizontal black lines for writing. At the bottom right of the scroll, there is a horizontal line followed by the text "(Sign Here)".
