

Writing with Alliteration

Alliteration happens when you repeat the beginning consonant sound in a group of closely connected words.

Ex. Peter picked a peck of pickled peppers.

Use the word on the line to write an alliterative sentence of your own.

1. Boy _____

2. Forest _____

3. Cake _____

4. Lamp _____

5. Fish _____

6. Whale _____

7. Cat _____

8. Dog _____