

What is Your Tongue?

Your tongue is a group of muscles that you use to chew, swallow, taste, talk and even sing. On your tongue are your taste buds. They are little bumps that help you tell one taste from another.

Did you know?

- Your tongue and your nose work together to help you taste food. The next time you get a stuffy nose, see if it is harder to taste food.

What is Your Tongue?

It's time for a word search! Do you know what the 5 basic tastes are? Find them in the puzzle and use the word bank for help.

K B O S P I C Y
F S Z S Y T V J
E W O A P O L R
S E V L X N M J
O E D T J G H N
U T C Y L U A F
R V V W U E P R
W B B I T T E R

Word Bank

sweet bitter sour salty spicy tongue