

Your Vs. You're

Draw a line from the word on the left to the correct definition on the right.

Your	Pronoun used to describe a second person
You	Contraction
You're	Possessive form, modifies a noun

Write out the contraction in the space provided.

You're = _____

I'm = _____

Complete the sentences using either “your” or “you're”.

- 1.) Do you think _____ going to finish that?
- 2.) What is _____ name?
- 3.) Mom thinks _____ very handsome.
- 4.) Move the chair if it is in _____ way.
- 5.) When someone says thank you, you say _____ welcome.
- 6.) This is my toy and that is _____ toy.
- 7.) The teacher wants you to change _____ seat.
- 8.) _____ going to grandma's for dinner.